

GLOBAL DAYS OF SERVICE 2019

GUIDELINES FOR INSTITUTIONS AND OFFICES

Every year, Laureate students, faculty, and staff come together during Global Days of Service to express their commitment to their communities and to celebrate our collective impact. Institutions and offices each have their own expressions of our Here for Good Spirit, and during Global Days of Service in the month of October, they will have a chance to showcase the social impact efforts that take place throughout the year on their campuses and in their communities.

In 2018, more than 25,000 volunteers participated in over 250 projects. We are asking each network institution and Laureate office to host at least one project or other type of community event during the month of October.
